

2022-23 Examples of LBHC-sponsored cultural activities for the community

Objective 1c. LBHC offers continuing education and Crow cultural enrichment and language activities to students, faculty, and staff and to the wider community.

Annual AIHEC conference	LBHC clan day
Apsáalooke Crow app	LBHC hand games
Beading class	LBHC masquerade
Buffalo hunt (and anatomy and physiology lab every fall)	LBHC push dance during valentine's day
Club activities (AIHEC, AIBL, AISES)	Library's cultural enrichment course; summer reading program; traveling exhibits
Community education classes (e.g., horse shoeing)	Little Big Man symposium
Community garden	Mourners' feeds
Crow bingo	Murder in Big Horn (documentary series)
Crow jeopardy	Native week activities
Crow language consortium and cultural festival (language learning)	Online Crow dictionary
Crow language summer institute	Online learning platform
Culture summer camp for school aged children	Orientation ceremony
Education program sponsors a family culture and language night	Parade (floats Halloween)
Grant opportunities to do scientific research in the community (e.g., invasive grass, turtle population, black-footed ferrets)	Self-defense course (missing and murdered indigenous women)
Guardians of the living waters	Smudge
Health and wellness challenge	Tiny tot competition at Crow fair
Hi-set/GED program	Tipi set up for Crow language course final exams
Indian club pow-wow	Traveling kites display
	Valentines